

DAKOTA Square Apartments

This family complex includes spacious one, two, three, and four bedroom apartments. The apartments are furnished with a stove, refrigerator, air conditioner, and dishwasher in some of the larger units. There is a laundry facility on-site and garages are available on a first come, first serve basis.

The rent is based on 30% of the tenant's adjusted income. The tenant is responsible for paying his or her own electricity with assistance through a utility allowance. Service animals are allowed if the proper documents are received by A.

Income Limits

Your income must be BELOW the income limit for the amount of people in the household in order to qualify.

How to Apply

Please complete an application in its entirety. An application will be denied if you owe money to AHA or another public housing authority and if a household member has been convicted of certain criminal activity.

Waiting List Information

All new applicants must fill out the Dakota Square Apartment's application. After the entire application is filled out and the proper information is turned in, the new applicant is placed on the waiting list. This is a first come, first serve basis depending on individual qualifications.

Applicant Responsibilities

After you have completed an application and have been placed on the waiting list, it is your responsibility to notify the office if:

- Your mailing address changes; or
- Your family size changes; or
- You no longer wish to be on the Dakota Square Apartment waiting list.

NOTE: If Dakota Square Apartments' correspondence is returned because of an incorrect address, your application will be removed from our waiting list and you will need to re-apply.
